BRECKONS WAIVES

Chinese Gambling Case Presents Weird Features

R. W. Breckons, who is conducting the defense of the 68 Chinese who ar on trial before Judge Robinson chara ed with gambling, suddenly change his mind over-night, apparently, in r gard to wanting to get the matter be fore the Supreme Court and get a d cision from that court on the right of challenge of jurymen in crimina cases. He stated that he would waiv a jury trial.

When the case first came up th week, Hreckons claimed his right challenge peremptorily two juryme for each defendant. He claimed in dition the right to challenge a this juryman for each defendant. Juds Robinson promptly ruled that he cou use his challenge of two for each d lendant, but that he had no right tne third challenge. The statute regard to the matter says that criminal cases the defendant sha have the right to challenge perempto two jurymen, except when the are two or more defendants, in which case each defendant shall have t right to only two peremptory chi Breckons took an exception to Ro inson's ruling for the purpose, he sai of bringing the matter before the S preme Court. He announced that h would exercise the right of challenging wo jurymen for each defendant.

other special venire of fifty appeared in court this morning. Breck ons, when the case was called, Cated that he had decided to waive a jury trial for his clients. The jurymen were accordingly excused.

County over $100, each juryman of the wo special ventres of fifty being en- SUGAR, titled to draw pay at the rate of $2 a day for his attendance.

Deputy Attorney General Prosser, who is conducting the prosecution, states that he can see no reason for the tactics adopted by the defense, as ble and expense. He hopes to con clude the case this afternoon.
